PROGRAMME

FOR THE INAUGURATION OF

ABBOTT LAWRENCE LOWELL, LL.D.

AS PRESIDENT OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5

8.30–10.30 P. M. Enrolment of Delegates of Universities, Colleges, and Learned Societies who have already arrived in Cambridge, at the Harvard Union.

The Enrolment of Delegates in the Inauguration Book will be followed by an informal Reception to which members of the Governing Boards and Faculties of the University and Gentlemen entertaining Delegates will be admitted without tickets.

A bureau of information and mail matter for Delegates will be found at the Harvard Union during the evening.

Delegates who are unable to be present on this occasion will be enrolled at Phillips Brooks House on Wednesday at 9 A. M.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 6

10.30 A. M. The Inaugural Ceremonies, followed by the President's Address and the Conferring of Honorary Degrees, in the College Yard.

The President and Fellows, the Board of Overseers, Faculties, Delegates of Universities, Colleges, and Learned Societies, and Guests who have been specially requested to do so, will assemble at Phillips Brooks House at 9.30 A. M. and march in procession to the Platform at University Hall.

The coat-room for Delegates will be in the basement of Phillips Brooks House; the coat-room for all others who march in procession will be in Holden Chapel.

Alumni and Guests having tickets for seats on the lawn will take their places before 10 A. M. Seats will not be reserved after this hour.

Officers of Instruction and Administration who have failed to receive tickets may apply to the Committee on the Inauguration.

Alumni and present members of the University who for any reason fail to provide themselves with tickets beforehand may secure tickets admitting to the Yard, by applying in person at the Gate of the Class of 1877 on Wednesday, October 6, from 8 to 11 A. M.
